

"The residents by more than $150,000. The tax rate is $35 on the $1,000. Only four of its people received aid from the poor fund.

"At the annual March meeting the voters decided on all activities of the town for the coming year. The men and women assembled voted on each item of money to be appropriated, and for what purpose. At the last meeting they passed judgment on 47 propositions. The officers elected are given definite instructions on all propositions for the year. That is the real rule of the people."

the highest civilization and the most sweet-consuming nations. We shall sur-relish a candy bar, the cake with frosting and the homemade candy of yore.
So if you notice little tots upon your own sidewalk once again enjoying their favorite goodies, give at least a little of the credit to the famous N. R. A. and the New Deal.
